This meeting was billed as a test match, but the Scotland team contained just one rider who was Scottish born, Ron Johnson, who grew up in, and represented Australia. The others were English, Australian and New Zealand riders who rode for the two Scottish clubs.

The ‘England’ side was basically a Second Division select side boosted by Jack Parker of Belle Vue.

Notes

Three riders called Bob Harrison rode this season. The most famous of these was the West Ham and former Belle Vue star. The others were the former Bradford junior who appeared for Halifax Nomads who I have called Bob Harrison 2 and the third, Bob Harrison 3, appeared at California.

I believe two riders by the name of Eric Mason appeared this season. One was the Bradford junior and a second appeared at Dublin Santry who I have called Eric Mason 2.

I believe two riders by the name of Stan Smith appeared this season. One rode for Wombwell and a second appeared at Rye House who I have called Stan Smith 2.
